Jaycees Plan Busy Summer

The Lake Region Jaycees recently elected Al Benning president. Other officers elected were Bob Lindquist, internal vice president; Roger Plechaty, external vice president; Harold Wilson, secretary; and Vernon Burdick, treasurer.

The first edition for this year of the Jaycees' information booklet will be out within the next week. The booklet contains a complete guide to surrounding resorts; some short articles on points of interest in the area; and a section which is changed every two weeks throughout the summer listing activities in the area.

Anyone interested in making additions to the schedule of activities, says Roger Plechaty, can do so at the Jaycees' information booth at the corner of Lake and Main Sts.

The Jaycees also appointed committees for their annual Beauty-Queen Pageant. Co-chairmen will be Bob Lindquist and Bill Wolfenbarger.

Entries for the Lake Region Beauty Queen are now being accepted. The girls must be between the ages of 16 and 21. Previous queens are not eligible.

These Beauty Queen winners will be crowned at the American Legion carnival, tentatively scheduled to be held from July 6 to 11. The Jaycees expect to have about 25 contestants for the Beauty title this year.

New, colorful vests, to be worn at all functions in which they participate, are being purchased by Jaycee members.

As provided by law, all first installment payments made after July 1 and all second installment payments made after September 1 will be subject to 1% per month penalty with interest.

Again this year most Lake County banks will cooperate with the treasurer's office by providing facilities so citizens can pay their taxes at the bank of their choice until September 1, 1965.

Ruth Dyer Is Queen

Ruth Dyer was crowned Queen of the Antioch High Prom last Saturday night. David Chandler was King of the 1965 Prom.

The Queen's Court was made up of Penny Nader, Sue Maeder, Jill Thompson and Kathy Dobsal, with escorts Mike Sterbenz, Tom Blackman, Don Anderson, David Fabry and Del Church. Theme of the 1965 Prom was "Over the Rainbow." The Blue Notes furnished music for the evening's dancing.

Old-Fashioned Melodrama At PM&L Theatre

Melodrammer in the old style will be presented at the PM&L Theatre on Main St. for the next two weekends.

"Gold in the Hills" will open Friday, May 21, at the theatre, and performances will be given May 22, 28 and 29. Curtain time is at 8:30.

The most villainous of villains (Al Bucar), a fearless hero (Larry Landis), an innocent heroine (Gerri Duncan) and an outraged father (Jim Corrigan), are part of the cast. The plot thickens—and thickens.

If you're a bit fed up with the psychological dramas, the agony of the lost generation, this tongue-in-cheek rendition of ageless and simple melodrama may well delight you.

200 of Finest Expected At Hospital Horse Show

About 200 horses are expected to be in competition in the Second Annual Horse Show being presented for the benefit of Countryside Hospital on Saturday and Sunday, May 29 and 30.

Entry blanks were sent out to show horse owners in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, according to John Romer, chairman of the show and a member of the Board of Directors of the hospital. Entries closed on May 14, and the biggest response, says Mr. Romer, came from Illinois and Wisconsin.

Shows will start at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. each day, and will last about 2½ hours. Numerous classes of show horses will compete for prizes, trophies and winners. Stalls are now being erected at the Lake County fair grounds at Grayslake. The horses will probably start to arrive Friday night.

About 200 horses are expected to compete. Saturday afternoon's program will open with a Jumper class, and close with the Ladies' Working class. The evening show will start with a Knock Down and Out, a jumper class in which the horse is disqualified as soon as it knocks down a barrier.

"Hunters and jumpers are the most spectacular, of course," Mr. Romer said, "and we have classes of each. Other classes which will be represented are the 5-gaited saddle horses, the 3-gaited saddle horses, Tennessee Walking Morgans, to name a few."

The show will cover 38 classes, ranging from ponies to hunters and jumpers. The Countryside Hospital Horse Show is under the direction of Earl Bruss, who also manages the Spring Horse Show in Milwaukee. The show is a member of the Northern Illinois Horse Show Association and the Wisconsin Horseshow Association.

Deputies Shoot It Out With Local Man

Police from five surrounding towns, sheriff's deputies and state police were called to a home on Beach Grove Road, south of Antioch, Tuesday night, May 18, to capture a man who had gone berserk and was firing wildly with a high powered rifle.

Sheriff's police were called at about 9:20 p.m. Tuesday night by Mrs. Sam Ogonezov. When Deputy Bernard Walther pulled his squad car into the driveway of the home, a shot from a high-powered rifle whizzed past his head as he stepped from the car. He heard Mrs. Ogonezov call out, "Look out, he's going to kill you."

Mrs. Ogonezov and her five children had stepped from the house to meet him, and he called to them to run down the road. The house is situated on Beach Grove Road about one-quarter mile west of Route 83.

Walther said he jumped back into the car and backed it up, blocking the driveway, then called for help. When Antioch Patrolman Harold Mason arrived on the scene, Walther crawled into a field at the back of the house to see if he could gain entry to the house that way.

Ogonezov loosed a volley of shots, and Walther returned the fire. He then returned to the road and called for more help.

Antioch Police Chief John Heick, and police from Fox Lake, Round Lake Park, Round Lake Beach and Lake Villa, plus some state troopers, converged on the Ogonezov home. As Ogonezov continued firing, the police finally threw a tear gas bomb into the house.

Ogonezov slipped out the back door, threw his rifle down in the field, and returned to the road where he surrendered to police. Police later found the gun, a 30.06 rifle, and two boxes of ammunition.

Ogonezov was taken to the county jail and booked on a charge of aggravated assault. Chief Deputy Norris Froelich said sheriff's police had gone to the Ogonezov home about three weeks ago when Mrs. Ogonezov had signed a complaint against her husband and had asked that he be given a mental hearing. She later withdrew the complaint. At the time, she said he had threatened her and the children and had been "shooting up the house."

Chief Heick said that the Antioch Fire Department, called to the scene because of the tear gas in the home, had taken Mrs. Ogonezov and her children to a hotel for the night. Tear gas had made the house uninhabitable for the night.

A special feature of the convention will be a hall set aside for persons who have never square danced before. All such people are invited to attend the convention and participate in this recreational activity and find out the "fun of square dancing."

Other features of the convention will be the square dance exhibitor booths, demonstrations by exhibition groups, a free souvenir program book, a "hitchhiker" post for solo dancers, after parties, a youthful activities program and a booth where the dancers may meet and talk with the WJJD "westerners."

Traffic Condition Red For Memorial Day

With the tremendous increase in traffic expected on our country roads during the Memorial Day weekend, "Traffic Condition Red" will be in operation during this period beginning at 6 p.m. Friday, May 28, and continuing until midnight Monday, May 31.

City, county and state police will increase all road patrols. Motorists are being asked to observe all traffic laws and keep their cars under control at all times.

Holiday Alert flags will be available at the Safety Commission office. By displaying these flags on your antenna, you are reminding other motorists to drive with extra caution.

To Hold Safety Lane Check-Up

The Antioch Police and the Rescue Squad will be joint sponsors of a safety lane at the high school on Friday, May 28.

Square Dance Fans To Hold First Annual Convention

"Walk all around your corner girl and see how you taw" to the First State of Illinois Square Dance Convention to be held May 28, 29 and 30, (Memorial Day weekend) at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago. Herb Johnson, general chairman, says that everything is in readiness for the huge crowd of square dancers that will attend from 14 states and Canada.

The finest square dance callers and round dance leaders from the midwestern states will be in attendance to insure the best in square and round dancing.

A special feature of the convention will be a hall set aside for persons who have never square danced before. All such people are invited to attend the convention and participate in this recreational activity and find out the "fun of square dancing."

Other features of the convention will be the square dance exhibitor booths, demonstrations by exhibition groups, a free souvenir program book, a "hitchhiker" post for solo dancers, after parties, a youthful activities program and a booth where the dancers may meet and talk with the WJJD "westerners."

Red Cross Water Safety Course Starts June 7

The Lake County Region of the Red Cross' Mid-America Chapter will offer a free Water Safety Instructor's Course beginning June 7. Classes will be held at Libertyville's Adler Pool from 9 a.m. to noon for 10 weeks.

Students taking the course must hold a current Red Cross Senior Lifesaving Certificate and must be at least 18 years old. Graduates of the course will be qualified to teach. Learn-to-Swim and Water Safety courses in their home communities.

They will complete the course in time to teach courses yet this summer. Many such courses are planned already, but still more are needed. Owners of private pools may have their pools approved by the Lake County Health Dept., and then contact the Red Cross about conducting a Learn-to-Swim course for youngsters in their neighborhood. If your organization would like to co-sponsor a learn-to-swim course, call the Red Cross at 662-4044.

Some careless or irresponsible person is endangering the lives of everyone in Antioch, Public Works Superintendent Edgar Simonsen warned Tuesday night at the village board meeting.

Fuel oil has showed up at the disposal plant for the third time in recent months, Simonsen said. This means that someone, knowingly or unknowingly, is dumping fuel oil into the sewers.

The danger of explosion from the fumes is a real hazard, Simonsen warned. The fumes could back up into the basement of a residence and be ignited by the pilot light on a hot water heater or by any other spark. An explosion could result, with subsequent fire.

The fumes in the sewer itself could possibly be ignited by a spark from the pump at a lift station, Simonsen warned. The resulting chain of explosions throughout the system and the resulting damage would be impossible to forecast.

The public works department was able to trace the two previous incidents. One was traced to a dairy, one to a china manufacturer. Both immediately discontinued the practice that had caused the oil seepage.

Attempts to trace the source this time have been so far unsuccessful. The oil has appeared at least once a week for the last three or four weeks. There is no pattern in the specific days of the week it appears—once on Wednesday, the last time on Monday, May 17. Simonsen estimated that a total of a barrel of the oil has appeared each time.

The next step the public works department will take is to attempt to trace the source of the oil by use of a dye.

The oil could be washed into the sewers from a basement drain, Simonsen said. He warns that whoever is responsible for the oil in the sewers is breaking a state law.

NO MOSQUITO CONTROL
In other matters, bird-lovers on the village board triumphed over mosquito-haters and defeated a proposition to sign a contract with Clark Outdoor Spray for mosquito control in Antioch.

Mayor Ray Toft presented a Mr. King, representative of the Mosquito Control Co. to the board. King presented a film on mosquito control, and explained details of the firm's control by treatment of nearby breeding places and fogging to kill the insects.

Total maximum cost of the plan, depending on whether or not it was a rainy summer, was to be $1,532. This would include eight foggings with DDT spray of the 19 lineal miles of the village.

King cited several towns in Lake County who had contracts with the firm last year and found the control satisfactory.

There was some discussion by the board of the possible economy of purchasing a fogger to be operated by village employees. It was pointed out that cost of the equipment, spray, insurance and pay for employees might well prove more costly than the mosquito control company.

Vern Barnstable pointed out that with the insects killed off by the spray, the purple martins would desert the area for lack of food. In a final vote on the mosquito control, Barnstable, Arthur Meierdick and Roger Williams voted against it, Robert Wilton and David Nissen for it. Irving Walsh was absent.

TRAILER SERVICE STATION O.K.'D

Nissen reported that he had been unable to find a satisfactory way to estimate how much would be due to the village in sewer service from a proposed trailer service station at Al's City Service on North Main.

Al Sodman, proprietor, had proposed to furnish a station for trailers to empty and flush out their sewer systems. Experience has shown that such a station draws considerable retail trade to towns, he declared.

The village board voted to approve the installation, with the sewer charge to be set by the board after investigation.

A Lifesaver, or Just More Politics?

Compulsory safety check-ups for cars is being pushed in the state legislature, with the plea that it will help to reduce the slaughter on our state's highways.

It would be well worthwhile to pay the fee for such a check-up if it would actually make any real dent in the number of accidents. We haven't seen any very convincing statistics that a sizeable percentage of accidents are caused by mechanical failure.

The chief causes of accidents still seems to be human carelessness and recklessness, sometimes aided and abetted by a sizeable ration of alcoholic beverages. We have laws against these accident-causers.

Added to the laws is the knowledge that involvement in an accident is very likely to cause injury or death. Yet people go right on inviting such accidents by speeding, passing on hills, and committing all the other infractions that are known to be dangerous.

Make safety checks mandatory, and a million minds will get busy thinking of ways to get around the law. Any sensible driver is going to see to it that his car is as mechanically safe as possible.

Compulsory safety checks will further penalize this careful driver. He spends his money to keep his car sound, then must pay an additional fee to have it checked in the rather vain hope that the process will weed out the unsafe cars.

How will the checkers be chosen? Will this become a local political plum to be handed out to the garage whose owner has some "pull", or is willing to "kick back" a small portion of the fees?

Who will decide the competency of the men who do the checking? Will having your car repaired at a certain garage become an automatic guarantee of an O.K. in the check lane?

And, assuming that every phase of the checking is conducted with painstaking honesty, how much real value does it have?

Experience has proven that brakes can fail, tires can blow, with no previous warning. Safety tests can't eliminate these possibilities. They may lull drivers into a false sense of security.

The compulsory safety check is another small expense, another small restriction, added to the long list which the law-abiding taxpayer observes, the irresponsible ignore or avoid. Another chance for dishonest traffic, more pressure on the low-income family to spend more on garage bills or buy another car.

Will it really cut down traffic accidents enough to make it worthwhile? Is it even a moderately effective substitute for personal responsibility?

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

According to newspaper, radio, and magazine advertising the month of May, among other things, is known as Tavern Month and beer and whiskey brewers and distillers are exhibiting the virtues of the friendly neighborhood tavern.

Tavern operators in Lake County, like the rest of the state, are enjoying the kind words being tossed in their direction by the men who supply them with their products, but many of them would like to see a more practical demonstration of esteem.

Particularly from the state legislators who are not above having a friendly drop in the friendly neighborhood tavern along about election time and who find it a matter of considerable satisfaction to have several tavern operators in their corner come election time.

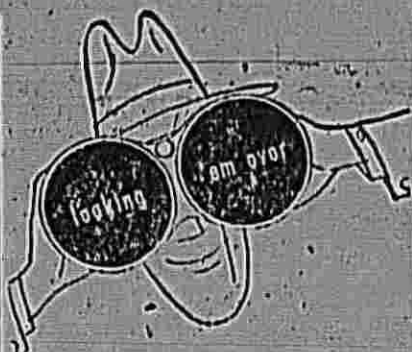

The operators of these friendly neighborhood clubs would regard it as a mark of real friendship if some of their legislators would find a new whipping boy during sessions of the Illinois General Assembly.

In particular the pubkeepers would appreciate some legislative opposition to bills like House Bill 446 which provides for automatic revocation of a state liquor license if the owner plays safe and applies for a federal gambling stamp.

Since there is not complete uniformity in the enforcement of gambling laws many innkeepers seek to play safe by taking out a federal gaming stamp even though the only action in their establishments are informal gin rummy games, shake-a-day jars, or no-profit-for-house pools on various sporting events.

They also decry a law that says a grocery store, bowling alley, billiard parlor, or restaurant can purchase a gambling stamp and not be put out of business, while the taverns can and in fact must be put out of business.

Whatever happened to that experimental car that barked rubbish for fuel instead of gas?

With the hike in the gas tax, these cars ought to sell like hot cakes.

Maybe the legislature has solved the traffic problem all by themselves. The high price of gas may keep enough people home to cut traffic down materially. This will save lives, mean we won't have to build more roads, and there will be less upkeep on existing roads. It will mean cars will last longer, so dealers won't be able to sell as many. This will also cut down on sales tax receipts.

In short, maybe gas tax has reached the point of diminishing returns. Lawmakers may find the tax income lower with the higher tax. Perhaps—miracle of miracles—some people may even decide to take up a moderate amount of walking again. You'll be able to feel truly virtuous about the amount of money you're saving by not starting the car to go a couple of blocks. So maybe the Legislature will find itself inadvertently instituting its own Physical Fitness campaign.

On the other side of the ledger, maybe high school kids won't be able to afford the high price of rambling through the countryside automatically and will be forced to stay home and study—or mow the lawn. So they'll get more out of their education, and juvenile delinquency will be cut down.

The window of Wilton's Electric last week was enough to make an alcoholic take the pledge.

An inebriated passerby might well have rubbed his eyes, looked again, and decided this was too much. Seeing double isn't bad, but six?

Nothing wrong with your eyes, friend. It was just a bank of identical TV's, all tuned to the same station, and producing a splendid, if somewhat startling, effect, with mixed emotions.

On one hand Froelich, who is a virtual incumbent as chief deputy sheriff, must surely regard a long list of candidates as tantamount to victory for him because of the built-in political strength of the job he now holds.

However, it can't be too reassuring to realize that a long list of candidates is indicative that a lot of people feel that this is the time when the sheriff-chief deputy succession tradition will at long last be broken.

Some "potential" candidates will, of course, never go to the post and others may file, but aren't expected to stay in the running beyond final withdrawal date.

Still it must be disquieting to realize there are those who profess to see signs of weakness.

The recent suggestion that Central committee chairman, might be a candidate for the post has produced some reactions that indicate not all Republicans have lost their sense of humor.

Milton has been sporting a candidate-type sombrero for many months, but if he decides to enter the race for sheriff there will be strong pressure for him to resign his party chairmanship and won't this produce some interesting party harmony.

There are strong indications that the Lake County Crime Commission officials are seeking a strong candidate for the sheriff's post, an eventuality that could have far-reaching effects on Lake County politics.

Friends of Judge Eugene T. Daly planted the needle gently under the judicial dignity at an informal luncheon for the Grayslake jurist at The Chez, Park City, last week.

ALONG THE WAY with Annie Mae

With all due respect to those gallant teenagers who gave up their Sunday afternoon to help with a fund gathering effort in behalf of the Lake County Museum, one wonders just what miracle it will take to come up with the projected need of one-half million smackers! After a rather ill-fated professional fund raising attempt for Countryside Hospital, this writer hopes that the Museum directors seriously consider other forms of financing this very worthy operations flow about long term bonds or a similar investment program? I might even invest my two cents worth for posterity, of course!

THE LATEST REPORT: If you don't have a teenager in your home, you haven't had the pleasure of belting out the words to their (get this) latest hit tune: "My Mama's Gonna Buy Me a Rubber Dolly" (Remember?). You've really got them in the palm of your hand when you sing along with "Engine, Engine Number Nine". I knew they'd get back to our kind of music again some day. Up jumped the wall! The one behind Williams V & S Hardware is the one we mean. Don't think it was meant to be an iron curtain, but it sure isn't going to let anyone in apparently. Took a trip out to Russ Stowe's Hobby Barn the other night and found it to be a miniature sized barn packed with interesting hobby material. . . . a local contractor will go the bankruptcy route.

NOTES TO YOU: While Chief Heick and his patrolmen juggle the "Near Beer" situation it's possible there is a capsule version that needs attention. . . . It was a boy at the Ronnie Anderson home on the sixth of May.

TIME LAST DROP: Let us make an announcement loud and clear, that the recent slaughter-house scandal did not involve any local firms! Those red-dicketed autos on Orchard St. are becoming a habit methinks. . . . DID YOU HEAR? Two volunteer firemen on Long Island were complaining about the poor condition of the fire-fighting equipment in their respective communities.

"If you think you got troubles," one of them said, "in our town, when the fire alarm goes off, we have to run down to Heriz and rent a truck."

In the driver's seat, Annie Mae

If the legislation is adopted in this form, it is the feeling of many that local election officials will simply relinquish their responsibility and resign themselves to a Federal take-over of local and state election machinery in the affected area.

A second and alternative method for establishing voting rights is contained in Section 3. This section is predicated upon a judicial determination of discrimination following an application of the Attorney General that the 15th Amendment of the Federal Constitution is being violated. Furthermore, this section appears to provide speedy relief coupled with similar authority for the appointment of Federal examiners to serve as long as such discriminatory practices persist. The section authorizes judicial review without however delaying the authority to register and vote on the part of any qualified citizen. Section 3 would be applicable in all 50 states and is intended as an effective and expeditious solution to the denial of voting rights.

The reason for the double standard of Federal intervention is not clear. The Attorney General, at a recent closed-door meeting, appeared to be under the impression that Section 3 did NOT permit the setting aside of voting tests which were used for purposes of practicing discrimination. He was mistaken in this regard. In fact, Section 3 could serve as a single adequate method of assuring equal voting rights for all. Consequently, one may ask why it is necessary to grant to the Attorney General authority for summary action without court authority or judicial review.

In seeking to assure Constitutional voting rights to our Negro citizens, it is important that the Congress proceed according to traditional, Constitutional methods. To enforce the 15th Amendment (guaranteeing equal voting rights) while doing violence to the 14th Amendment (guaranteeing due process of law) is hardly consistent with the principles to which the House Judiciary Committee and the U. S. Congress should adhere.

The determination of the Attorney General would not be dependent upon any court order and no state or subsidiary voting district could be relieved from the impact of such Federal control except by satisfying the impossible determination that for the prior five years such tests or qualifications (required by state law) had not in fact been used. In addition, such appeal could only be filed in the District Court of the District of Columbia. The section contains an additional severe provision, namely, that the determination of the Attorney General "shall not be reviewable in any court and shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER."

Letters to the Editor

There has been so much devastation of the land this past few years—through floods, tornadoes and earthquakes that we should protect and preserve what is left to be enjoyed.

People remark about the scanty show of wild flowers and trees but few know that many plants when their blooms have been picked, never grow again; that portion of a tree dies when branches are torn off; that tossing refuse beneath bushes can inadvertently cost the life of that plant as the refuse draws rodents and insects who gnaw away destroying the plant itself.

We would not abuse our own trees, shrubbery and flowers but feed them expensive chemicals and minerals to keep them beautiful. Yet we do not hesitate to trample, yank out, bury alive the wild life and plants that depend on the elements and the whim of man to protect and preserve it.

Please, on your trips to the countryside, don't destroy—that others may enjoy!!

And don't be a litterbug!!

Dear Editor: I'm presently attending the University of Illinois, but I still have a great deal of interest in the welfare of my community. I subscribe to your newspaper so that I can keep informed about happenings in Antioch. I must say the Antioch News is a welcome sight on Fridays.

Unfortunately, I can't agree with the stand you took on voting in your article entitled, "Heads Roll at Polls." How can a person with your influence on the community condone blind-voting? Let's throw the whole bunch out and see if someone else will do a better job. It's not a bad idea.

How could you allow this to be printed in your newspaper? Don't you see that good men might be prohibited from holding office by such a policy.

Why don't you take a look at your dusty Civics book and see which principles make up the "American Way"?

Sincerely,
Norbert Walter

ICPT Members Support State Income Tax

Delegates to the 63rd annual convention of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers approved confirming support of a State income tax, corporation income tax and corporation franchise tax; fair housing legislation; and moved that the ICPT seek a more realistic foundation level to the State Air formula.

The convention met Friday, May 7. Delegates also agreed that telegrams should be sent to state legislators in support of Compensatory Education. The convention body unanimously commended the outstanding efforts and help provided by teenagers throughout the flood disaster areas in Illinois.

The ICPT also approved resolutions calling for remedial legislation on the subject of a fair taxation of mobile homes and trailer parks, while upholding the rights of individuals who reside in such homes to continue to use all educational facilities; and a resolution calling for use of textbooks which include the role of minority groups in the historical development of our country.

The ICPT declared their support of the Master Plan for Higher Education in Illinois. They support the move to remove the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction from elective office only if the resolution also provides that the superintendent be appointed by a state board of education, which board would be appointed by the Governor.

Officers of the ICPT were installed Saturday at the convention.

Survey State Capitol With Eye To Repairs

The first structural and architectural survey ever made of the almost 100-year-old State Capitol building is in progress. Secretary of State Paul Powell has announced.

The purpose of the survey is to assess the effects of the accumulated years' stresses and strains, to determine the building's maximum capacities, and to compare them with present loads so that needed adjustments and repairs may be made, Secretary Powell said. The Centennial building is included in the survey also.

"I am firmly convinced that it is in the best interests of the State to get the complete facts on the condition of the Capitol, not only because of the safety factor, important as that is, but also to preserve the historical value of the building," Secretary Powell said.

Mr. Powell pointed out that over the years, especially in the last 10 to 15 years, there has been a great increase in the use of electrically powered office machines, electronic equipment, air conditioners and similar items, all of which have added to the weight, electrical and plumbing loads.

In addition, the number of persons employed in the building has increased, and the Capitol's constantly growing popularity as a tourist attraction brings larger groups of tourists and school groups every year who visit the House and Senate chambers, the Hall of Governors, the offices of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts and State Treasurer, Secretary Powell said.

A total of 1,000,000 visitors is expected this year, he said. Upon the release of $190,000 in State funds by Governor Otto Kerner, the firm of Nelson and Fernandez of Springfield, consulting architects, to the Secretary of State's office, was engaged to do the survey.

The entire survey will take about two years to complete, Mr. Powell said, but as certain unsatisfactory conditions are revealed, work can be started on them while the survey is still being made. A preliminary report already submitted by the architectural firm recommends repair of wall anchors for a circular staircase, installation of proper guys for spotlights which illumine the dome, repair or replacement of gabled stone cornices at the fifth floor level, replacement of fireproof plastering in the roof structure over House and Senate chambers, and replacement of some roof rafters and sheathing in the east wing of the building.

The complete survey will include a structural investigation; electrical loads and capacities; plumbing, heating and air conditioning study, with the possibility in mind of installing a single, combined system, architectural and space survey, with recommendations for relocation and allocation of space, and a people and parking load and circulation study, Secretary Powell said.

Scouts Prepare For Exposition

The annual Scouting Exposition for the Northwest District of the North Shore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held on May 22, at the Lake County Fair grounds, located at the intersection of Routes 45 and 120, Grayslake.

The committees, under the leadership of Camping Chairman, Marvin Danielson, and Activities Chairman, Robert vonDaeniken, feel that this year's show will be the best yet. They point out, however, that only the ground work has been done, and that the real success of the show will be earned by the Scouts and their leaders.

More than 1200 boys and over 300 leaders, from all over the Northwest District will participate in the show. The boys have been preparing for this event for some time, to present to the public exhibits which will show that they are upholding their motto of "BE PREPARED."

Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts will begin converging on the Fair Grounds late in the afternoon of Friday, May 21. ful and impressive high point of the show.

Also offered this year is a continuous showing of a movie film, which shows and describes the facilities and advantages offered to Boy Scouts by the Scouting camp at Camp Mac-Ka-Ja-Wan at Pickering, Wis.

"Walk your way to health," advises Dr. Charles S. DeZanek, president of the Illinois Podiatry Society, in connection with National Foot Health Week, May 14-21.

Pointing out that too many of us ride when we can walk, the Chicago foot specialist cites the health benefits to be derived from the wonderful exercise involved in walking—exercise that affects many muscles of the body.

"It's not only good for you physically, but mentally as well," he said. "It brushes away the cobwebs and provides a time for meditation."

"Of course, enjoyment in walking requires healthy feet," he commented. "Good feet and comfortable, properly-fitted shoes are paramount."

National Foot Health Week is sponsored by the American Foot Health Foundation and the Illinois Podiatry Society. This year's theme is "Walk and Be Healthy."

Stamp collecting is a fascinating hobby, we'll grant you. But stamps are not a substitute for money.

Would you like it if the boss paid your husband off in stamps? If stores gave you your change in stamps, redeemable in merchandise at some distant town?

No, of course you wouldn't. Money is the coin of the realm, and you can spend yours wherever you like to buy what you wish.

So we'll keep on giving you your change and your savings in money. No need to mess up your purse with sticky stamps, no need to spend precious time licking and sticking. You can spend the coins you save by shopping IGA wherever you wish, whenever you wish.

Ace Doubles Stock, Adds New Lines In New Home

If you don't see what you want in the new Ace Hardware Store, we'll be surprised.

The Costoff brothers are not only expanding the size of their store, they're adding several new lines and increasing the stock in their regular lines.

The new home of Ace Hardware is in the Antioch shopping plaza. Date for opening at the new location has been tentatively set at June 15.

Some of the new lines they'll be showing, in addition to all kinds of hardware, is a complete sporting goods department; an automotive section; a large giftware department; a camera and camera supply counter with film, cameras and walkie-talkies; a year-round, expanded toy section; and an art supply center.

The new store is 90' x 135', with a 2,000 square foot addition on the west side of the building for a warehouse. The store itself covers 12,150 square feet. There is 2,000 square ft. additional space in a gallery which houses offices.

The new Ace Hardware will be self-service, with shopping carts and three check-out counters; a six-foot wide center aisle leads to a service bar in the back, where anyone needing help with their purchases can get information.

The store has a natural wood beamed ceiling. Ace has purchased the most modern and convenient fixtures for their new store—90,000 pounds of steel fixtures.

The shelves are all metal pegboard, and movable. Each shelf is movable, so it can be adjusted for height, and tilted at any angle. In addition, each set of shelves is movable.—the layout of the store could be altered at any time the owner chose, by shifting shelves around.

Cameras, etc., will be included in lighted showcases.

Lozier Corp. of Omaha, Nebraska, supplied and installed the fixtures.

An electric conveyor belt will load the shelves with paint and like supplies. The belt brings the cans of paint from the back room to the shelves.

The store has a complete inter-com service throughout, to expedite service to customers.

Sidney Morris and Assoc. of Chicago are the architects of the new building. Haglund, Inc. of Waukegan, is the general contractor.

with Al Jensen the foreman on the job.

Antioch Ace Hardware is owned by the three Costoff brothers, Ted, Bob and Gus. Roger Plechaty will be manager of the new store, Virgil Burnette, assistant manager.

"We hope it will be the finest store in town," Ted Costoff said. "We've increased our stock by 50% and believe our layouts will be tops in providing efficient customer service. We'll have a Grand Opening, of course, shortly after our store opens."

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Del Jahneke

Mrs. Myra Randall, Gold Star Mother, and the Gold Star Sisters, Mrs. Ralph Fields, Mrs. Ollie Tweed, and Mrs. George Swenson, were present at the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary Gold Star party, held on May 14.

Mrs. F. A. Swenson, and her daughter, Mrs. Lester Zikus, harmonized in a duet, "Just as I Am." Gifts were given to the Gold Star members there, and identical gifts will be sent to those Gold Star members unable to attend. Gold corsages were presented to their "guests of honor."

Refreshments were served and cards were played. Mrs. Earl Horton was the chairman of this affair.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. John L. Horan, president. The nominating committee for the election of new officers was selected with Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Sr., chairman, and Mrs. Walter K. Hills, Mrs. Burt Anderson, Mrs. Anton Johnson and Mrs. Ralph Fields as the committee members.

On Sunday, May 16, Mrs. J. L. Horan, Mrs. Joseph Horton, Illini Girl's State chairman, Melonnie Jensen, Girl Stater, and Mrs. Robert Jensen attended the 10th

District Girl's State Tea, held in the Shavin American Legion Home in North Chicago. Since it is the 25th year that Illinois has had the Girl's State program, the party's theme was the "Silver Anniversary." A large, white artificial cake, decorated with silver letters, saying "Happy Silver Anniversary for Illini Girl's State", proved a very effective table centerpiece. Many women and girls, who have been former Girl's Staters, gave short talks, including one mother, (from Fox Lake) a girl stater 24 years ago, and her daughter, who will attend this year's session.

Mrs. Albert Dorn, 10th District Director, informed the 70 guests, that she had been a Girl State 16 years ago, and the experience it had given her, gave her much of the enthusiasm and interest to continue American Legion Auxiliary work. Dainty "finger" sandwiches, small iced cakes, punch and coffee were served.

May 22nd is Poppy day, and more volunteers are still needed. Poppy Day, as a memorial to American war dead, and a tribute to disabled servicemen originated after World War I. Soldiers returning from Europe in 1918 were familiar with the wild red poppies, blooming on the battlefields of France and Flanders. The red crepe paper memorial poppies worn throughout the nation on Poppy Day are made by veterans in hospitals. These men are paid for each hand-made poppy they make, and the materials are furnished free by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Through the Poppy Program, more than $500,000 is paid annually to needy and disabled service men and women. All contributions received from Poppy Day go directly to aid them, or members of their families. Children of war veterans left in need by the disability of their fathers benefit directly from Poppy Day. Contributions received go into the rehabilitation and child welfare programs of the American Legion and Auxiliary.

"By wearing a 'Poppy' on Poppy Day, each American can honor the sacrifice made by our servicemen, while assisting the living. If you can donate a little of your time, on May 22nd, please contact Mrs. J. L. Horan at 395-0845.

The 10th District American Legion and Auxiliary annual Child Welfare Picnic will be held at the Lake Region Legion Home in Fox Lake, on Sunday, May 23rd, at 12 noon. Children from the Lake Villa Baptist Children's home, the Allendale School for Boys, the Lake Bluff Orphanage, and Arden Shore Home are the guests. A family-style picnic, boat-rides, games and prizes will give the youngsters a pleasant day.

All 25 Legion Posts, and the 22 Auxiliary Units in Lake County, the "Eight and Forty", and the "Forty and Eight" all contribute and participate to make this picnic possible.

Antioch Hosts Northwest Conference Track Meet

Things are really buzzing around the athletic office at Antioch High School these days as the Sequoit staff makes final preparations for the Northwest Conference Track Meet scheduled for Saturday. It will be the first time in many years that Antioch has hosted the meet.

A strong favorite to win the meet, the Sequoits finished second to Wauconda in last year's competition at Lake Forest. The meet went down to the last event last year before the Sequoits were nosed out by one point.

Preliminaries are set to start at 10 a.m. with the finals scheduled to start at 1 p.m. A team trophy will be awarded the winning school and medals to the first five places in the varsity events. Ribbons for the first five places in the frosh-soph events will be awarded.

Several conference champions from last year will be on hand to defend their titles. From Antioch, Tom Morgan will be trying to repeat his winning effort of last year in the 100 yard dash. The champion Sequoit mile relay team can expect some strong competition from the Elavernon entry this year.

Paul Lindahl of Grant will defend his 880 yard run title against Jim Effinger of Antioch and Bruce Hansen of Elavernon. The high jump will see Bob Scott of Wauconda against Bob Schenk of Antioch. Scott is the defending champ requiring one less jump than Schenk in last year's 5'10" winning height.

Steve Welter of Grant is a strong favorite to repeat as pole vault champion. Welter is the conference record holder as well.

In other events, Jim DeNova and Mike Strohl of Wauconda, and Bruce Dal-gaard of Antioch are expected to battle it out for the 120 yard high hurdle title. Antioch, Wauconda and Elavernon are the favorites in the 880 relay with Antioch getting a bit of the edge in the event.

The 440 shapes up to be between four boys, Flash-kamp of Grant, Effinger and Jim Litchfield of Antioch and DeNova of Wauconda. Bill Baumgartner of Elavernon and Tom Morgan of Antioch are expected to make it a two man race in the 220 yard dash.

Teammates Bob Flood and Tyrone Walls of Antioch are strong favorites in the shot put, while Brad DeZurich of Grayslake is the pick in the discus with some competition looked for from Flood. In the broad jump it's Jim Edwards of Antioch and Baumgartner of Elavernon.

Points will be awarded on the basis of: 5—first; 4—second; 3—third; 2—fourth and 1—fifth. Admission will be 50c for students and $1.00 for adults.

Spins, Flips On Rain-Slicked Track Thrill Speedway Fans

Fuzzy Fassbender became this season's first double feature winner in the modified stock car action at the Waukegan Speedway Friday night. This victory moved Fassbender into a tie with Ken Tlougan for second place in the point standings. Johnny Reimer chased Fassbender to the flag to preserve a slim 12 point lead.

Ron Larson held off Jim Sullivan for one lap in the feature, then Sullivan pushed his fuel-injected 482 cu. in. Plymouth into the lead. Duane Harris and Fassbender both slipped by Sullivan coming down the homestretch for the seventh lap, Harris snatching the lead.

Fassbender then tried both on the inside and outside to pass Harris, hitting the backstretch wall twice in a shower of sparks before zooming by Harris in lap 14. The race came to a jarring halt a few laps later, when Claude Potter, fourth fastest qualifier, rammed the pit wall head-on. He was uninjured. In the remaining six laps, Reimer passed Harris and wheeled to within one car length of Fassbender.

Light sprinkles in the modified feature turned to rain in the late model feature forcing starter Frank Pinter to call the race at the end of four laps. John Hood was given top place over Dave Nissen early in the race. Several laps later a tangle put Garner, Sullivan and Fassbender into the infield with Sullivan blasting out and into the lead. Harris then charged up from his last row starting position to repeatedly challenge Sullivan, finally powering even with him down the homestretch of lap ten, only to spin into the infield just thirty feet short of the checkered flag; Sullivan winning.

Track officials have decided to delay initiating Sunday night raindates until possibly later in the season. Also the first scheduled championship event of the season for modifieds will be held Sunday night, May 30, with a fifty-lap feature for modifieds planned. There will be racing at the Waukegan Speedway three nights on the long Memorial Day weekend.

RAIN SHORTENS SAT. NIGHT FEATURE

A fire, a flip, high speeds, a storybook finish and rain high-lighted the late model card at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night.

Threatening weather and storm warnings prompted officials to shorten the feature event to fifteen laps. Not wasting any time, Jim Cossman and John Hood spurted from the rear of the pack. Hood passed the champion, Cossman, and grabbed the lead on the third lap. Meanwhile a wheel to wheel battle developed for third position among Jim Luther, Dennis Borgan and Ken Becker.

Cossman, an ever-constant shadow on Hood's bumper, forced Hood into the fastest one-lap, late-model time ever recorded at the Waukegan Speedway, 17.95, in order to stave off the constant challenge. On the very last lap, Hood spun in the first curve, giving Cossman the feature win.

In the secondary battle, Luther edged Becker, with Borgan right on their tails for fourth. Hood finished eighth.

In the jalopy division, Lee Mayfield, of Round Lake Park, pursued leader Marly Martin throughout the contest. Catching Martin on the next to last lap, Mayfield drove high into the third turn to pass, but rather brought the screaming fans to their feet as he flipped through the

Opening Of Wilmot Speedway Rained Out

The opening race of the 1965 season at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, Wisconsin was off to an exciting and fast start until rain dampened the spirits and efforts to get the first program off in its entirety.

Rain fell briefly before the last two events which would have seen the modifieds that appeared to be running in top form so early in the season, storm away in the 25 lap feature. Because of the rain-shortened program, the next week's race will feature a 35-lap feature. This will be the first 35 lap feature in more than two years at the speedway.

The heat races ahead of the rain, were as exciting as ever and saw Wisconsin drivers score more wins than the Illinois drivers. Don Scoree, 1961 Modified Driver champion, set fast time with a clocking of 18.83 seconds. Heat race winners were Bill

Strome of Milwaukee; Russ Reynolds of Racine; Luano Harris of McHenry; and Jim Sullivan of Antioch. Bill

Ansell of Milwaukee won the semi feature. Harold Gutchee of Kenosha won the only spectator race that could be run before the rain fell.

The third heat of modifieds was a real thriller, with Duane Harris fighting off repeated bids for the lead by the 1964 Champion Rodger Otto of Burlington. Behind these two were Bill Bohn and Kenny Tlougan who really were pushing hard trying to get up to the flying pair ahead. Jim Sullivan had been third but went wide in the corner and let Tlougan slip in and take up the chase on Bohn.

By setting fast time, Scoree will receive the feature race points and go into the races next week with a lead in the point standings.

The 1965 valedictorian, James Edwards, has participated in three sports each year and has compiled a perfect attendance record. The same is true of Bruce Dalgard, salutatorian.

"There can be no doubt that an athletic program of this nature and scope can do little but aid the boys who participate in it," stated Eggleston.

Athletes Have Best Records In H. School

Statistics compiled at Antioch High School show that there is an interesting correlation between academic success and participation in sports, according to Lawrence Eggleston, Assistant Superintendent.

He points out that 36% of the boys at Antioch High participate in the sports program. In this year's senior class, five out of the top ten students are athletes.

Fifty-seven per cent of the senior athletes at Antioch are in the top half of the class; also, 16 boys in the top 25% of the class have been active in three sports each year, which means that sports are a year-around activity for them. A total of 24 of the top half of the class are active in three sports.

Less than seven athletes in the present senior class have ever been considered disciplinary problems by the Dean of Boys. The absentee rate among athletes is so slight as to be nearly insignificant; it is almost nonexistent in the top half of the class.

INDY "500" A "PUSH" OVER FOR REAR-ENGINE CARS?

By Jim Hurtubise
Veteran Indianapolis "500" Driver

I am switching to a rear-engine car for the Indianapolis "500" this year because I believe one of the "pushers" will win and I want to be in it.

In all of my five previous Indianapolis appearances, I've relied on the heavier, rugged "roadster," such as I drove to new track records in the time trials as a rookie in 1960.

Although most race fans regard the rear-engine car as a recent innovation, Harry Miller built three of this type for the "500" in the late 1930's. All were involved in accidents and the idea was not further explored at that time because drivers thought the cockpits were located too far forward in the cars for proper control in the turns.

Progress made in the development of rear-engine cars since last season makes it almost a sure bet that the era of the roadster will end this year at the Speedway. With the stabilization of racing engines at the present maximum piston displacement of 256 cu. in., engineering emphasis has been concentrated on new body designs, and tire and suspension improvements.

With these sophisticated developments, rear-engine cars seem to have a decided speed advantage over the front-engine machines. After the Plymouth pace car completes the parade lap on May 31, stamina and durability will greatly determine which car enters the winner's circle. The new, lighter design of the rear-engine car has still to establish its credentials as a winner of the 500-mile race. This year, however, I believe that it will do so handsly, and it looks to me like as many as the first eight finishes could be rear-engine cars.

It still could be a tossup as to whether the winning car's engine will have four or eight cylinders. Four-cylinder "Offys" have won all of the last 18 Indianapolis events, and an eight-cylinder car hasn't won the "500" since 1940.

My brother, Pete, and I are hoping to start the race with an eight-cylinder, rear-mounted engine in a car we feel will go the full distance—and get there first.

Crack Sequoit Squad Sets 4 School Records

Antioch's track squad continues to dominate the conference track picture as they set four new school records and easily disposed of Warren in a dual meet at Gurnee last Thursday. The Sequoits rolled up a 90 to 19 score and allowed the Blue Devils only one first place finish.

Highlight of the meet came when Bob Flood set a new school shot put record with a toss of 52'6 1/2". His effort bettered the old mark by over two feet.

Frosh-soph records in the 440 yard run, the discus and the 880 yard run were also shattered. Jim Litchfield ran a 53.4 quarter to set a new frosh-soph mark in that distance. Blaine Backman set a new mark of 2:09.9 in the 880 and Wayne Hansen tossed the discus 124'8" to get his name in the school record book.

The Sequoit sophs also came through on their end of the meet winning by an 81 to 37 score. The sophs also allowed the Warren preps only one first place.

Little League Opens 1965 Season

The Antioch Little League opens the 1965 season at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 23, at the Little League park.

The ten-week schedule will present games Monday through Friday at 6 p.m. at the park, barring inclement weather and holidays.

Applications to participate are still being accepted from interested 7 through 15-year-old boys. The boys may see any team members.

Happiness may be thought, sought, or caught, but not bought.

During the four years of World War II, more than 390,000 Americans lost their lives in battle. During the same four years, however, the Chicago Heart Association points out 2,300,000 Americans died of heart and blood vessel diseases.

Courses in Oriental philosophy and the philosophy of education are offered by the Southern Illinois University philosophy department.

Antioch Girl Nears End Of Term As Rainbow Official

Harriet Wells, Grand Worthy Advisor, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, State of Illinois, will be welcomed back to her own Antioch Assembly on Saturday, June 12, at Antioch High School. This will be her last official visit before Grand Assembly at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago July 15, 16 and 17. These three days will mark the end of Harriet's term as G.W.A. On the 17th, she will install Lynn Kraft, from Bloomington, Normal, to granddaughter made her First Communion while they were there.

Norman and Everett Nelson of North Chicago were visitors Saturday at the Sr. Bartlett's residence.

Joe and William Hamlin spent the weekend in Indiana with their father. Mr. and Mrs. Leif Larson and family of Antioch, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keisler of Antioch and Mr. and Mrs. James McGrain and family of Waukegan visited relatives in Lake Villa Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Galiger of Millburn were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galiger and family.

Home From Hospital
Joe Nader, Sr., was able to return home Sunday after being a patient at St. Therese hospital in Waukegan. We all hope for a fast recovery.

The advancement fund provides financial support for new assemblies to get started.

Harriet also attended the Supreme Session of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, held in Philadelphia in 1964. The next Supreme Session will be in July in Denver, Colorado, in 1966.

The Grand Worthy Advisor is elected at Grand Assembly each year and reigns for the year. Each girl chooses her flower. Harriet's is the white rose. Her motto is "God is Love." The open Bible is the symbol which has been carried out all through the year.

The color has been orange, which represents the second station of the rainbow and symbolizes religion. Many assemblies carry out all these suggestions when they entertain her at the official visit.

Rainbow is a youth organization that has members between the ages of 12 and 20. A girl can be asked to join when she is 12 and receives either a marriage or a 20-year majority. Its ideals are to lift the standards of girlhood and make the world a better place in which to live.

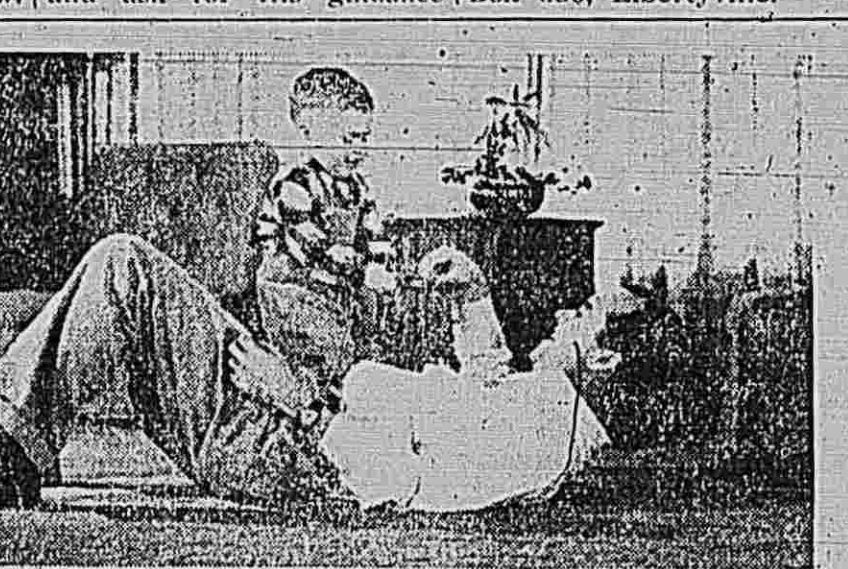

The Rainbow ritual was written by the Reverend W. Mark Saxon, a 33rd degree Mason, Past Grand Master and Past Grand Patron, O. E. S. of Oklahoma. It is sublime and beautiful in its simplicity and understanding, well adapted to girl life. Rainbow assemblies are all dedicated to God in Love and Service.

Rainbow is sponsored by the Eastern Star Chapter or Masonic Lodges, or by interested members from both orders.

The basic concept of rainbow is beauty, as exemplified by the colors of the rainbow. Each color of the rainbow is represented by a station in the Assembly. Three times a year there is a change of officers within the Assembly and different girls are elected or appointed to fill the various stations.

The Pot of Gold holds many things for each girl, especially the lessons they learn from the seven rays of the Rainbow. Red is for Love of God and parents and for all who come their way. Orange is for religion, reminding them to worship God and ask for His guidance each day. Yellow symbolizes Nature, over all the land and sea. Green reminds them that they never die, denoting immortality. Blue denotes the test of Womanhood's true worth. Indigo is for their devotion to the land that gave them birth. But no ray shines so bright as the violet ray of Service. Service to their homes, their country, and most of all, to God.

With flameless electric heat, for example, each room can have its own thermostat. You can enjoy 80° in the bath, 72° in the living room and 65° in the bedroom. There's no burning fuel, nothing to make dirt . . . walls and furniture stay clean far longer. Come summer, electric air conditioning wrings heat and humidity from the air along with most of the annoying pollens.

Electric cooking takes the flame out of the kitchen. People stay cooler, and pans, walls and curtains stay cleaner. And, because electric heat is controlled heat, it takes the guesswork out of cooking. Foods cooked in an electric oven have a done-to-a-turn flavor that only radiant heat and insulation on all six sides can provide. Electrically dried clothes come out sweet and fresh because there's no burning fuel to cause an odor. With no pilot light, power ignition or extra cost for tumbler drive, the average family's drying bill comes to only $1.25 a month.* And an electric dryer costs $20 to $40 less to buy.

See how easy it can be to move up to total electric living at your house. Call us for details, today. *Based on the actual use of a cross section of Northern Illinois families.

Local Organizations Get Beat The Champ Money

The Antioch Rescue Squad received a donation of $54.77 and the Antioch Fire Department a like amount last week as a contribution from league bowlers who took part in the "Beat The Champ" contest at the Antioch bowl.

Beat the Champ is held in most area bowling alleys, with league bowlers paying 50c to match their league scores against the score rolled by a pro for the contest. High scorers in each league receive trophies, and a percentage of the entry fee is returned to the alley, to be donated to a local worthwhile cause.

Mrs. Earl (Elsie) Hays presented the checks to the representatives of the Rescue Squad and Fire Department, Captain Ernie Westlund and Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen. Mrs. Hays, the oldest league bowler in the women's league, says the past year was her last in league competition. "Oh, I'll still bowl," she said, "but I haven't been able to maintain a high enough average (this last year. It's not fair to the rest of the team." Elsie first bowled when she was 14 years old. She's 75 now. Bowling alleys were a rarity then. The one she learned on was at St. Joe, Michigan. The alley was frequented by Nick Bruck, midwest champion. He bowled with an eighteen pound ball, and he gave Elsie some pointers that helped her get off to a good start.

Conditions were rugged in those early alleys. She set pins by hand herself some times, Elsie said. No one bothered with bowling shoes—she's bowled in high heels. Her first league bowling was done in 1941, when the Antioch Recreation opened on Main St. Elsie used a 16 pound ball then—now she's gradually dropped to a twelve pound.

For the last thirteen years she's bowled on the Reeves Drugs team in the Friday night Pinnotters league.

One in a series to help you enjoy better telephone service

Who to call about what at the telephone company

It would be nice if we could give you the number of just one person to call about anything having to do with your telephone. But to do the best job of handling the many different questions and requests that come up, we put several different people at your service.

There is, however, one person who can care for most of your telephone needs. She is:

Your Service Representative

She's the one to call for new telephone service; changes in your service; information about telephone equipment and prices; changes or additions to your directory listing; copies of extra directories; questions about your telephone bill. Call your Service Representative, too, with any general questions about your telephone service.

If your case requires something out of the ordinary, the Service Representative can usually handle it.

If necessary she can turn to her Supervisor.

And, should you feel a need to talk to someone "higher up," the Supervisor or the Manager, who's boss of the office where your account is handled, are ready to help you.

To talk to your Service Representative, call your telephone business office.

The number is in the front of your directory.

Here are a few other key people to call for special service needs:

Repair Service

If your telephone isn't working right, call Repair Service. You will find the number in the front pages of your local telephone directory—or ask your Operator (dial zero). With our new regional service centers we're equipped to serve you any time, day or night.

And there's no extra charge to you.

Information Service

If you can't find a number in your directory, the Information Operator will be glad to help you. See the front pages of your directory for her number.

For a number in most distant locations (if you have Direct Distance Dialing service), dial the distant Area Code plus 555-1212—no charge for this call. Otherwise, ask your Long Distance Operator.

The Operator

If your need is other than business with the phone company—remember the Operator is always behind your dial. Dial "zero" for assistance with any call.

Editorial taken from The Antioch News May 7, 1959: Hurrah to Area Drivers Because We Don't Have to Talk About You.

One of the pleasurable things for this newspaper to do in the past month or so is to not have to report on a series of releases by the Secretary of State.

Periodically The Antioch News gets a list of Lake Counties who have had their driver's licenses revoked or suspended because of continuous traffic infractions. It has been possible for The News to discard almost every release lately because no one from this area has been caught by this stiff arm of the law.

This may indicate that drivers hereabouts are just as bad as those in other sections of the country but don't get caught. Or it may indicate that drivers here are just better than their contemporaries in the county.

We like to lean to the latter view.

But however you wish to look at it, it is a fact that only just a few lakes area residents have had their licenses suspended when there have been names of hundreds of residents in other sections of the county who have been penalized.

We would like to someday salute area drivers for their care, but to also let this serve as a reminder and a warning that they cannot let down in their driving.

President Proclaims Small Business Week

President Johnson has issued a proclamation designating the week starting May 23 as "Small Business Week 1965". Richard E. Lassar, Midwestern Area Administrator of the Small Business Administration, reported today.

Mr. Lassar said the Presidential proclamation calls on business groups and other private and public organizations across the country to participate in ceremonies "recognizing the contribution of small business to our goal of a better and more productive life for all our people."

In the proclamation issued in Washington, the President noted that the Nation's 4.7 million small businesses provide more than a third of the country's good and services, and "hold open the door of opportunity for men and women of all races and creeds."

Mr. Lassar also pointed out the proclamation emphasizes that small business concerns, by continuing to grow in number and strength, will provide additional jobs needed by a growing Nation, and are a source of new products which enrich the lives of our citizens and stimulate our economic growth.

MDTA Eliminates Unemployables

A slashing drive straight into the ranks of the hard-core unemployed of Chicago will end successfully this week when 16 public aid recipients, pigeon-holed a year ago as functionally deficient, will be graduated Friday from a course in welding. Sixteen of the men have already been hired by Chicago employers, the majority of them at wages over $2.50 an hour.

The men will receive their certificates following a luncheon and graduation exercises at the American Institute of Engineering and Technology, 1135 West Fullerton.

Two government agencies, the Cook County Department of Public Aid and the Illinois State Employment Service, cooperated in this pilot project which combined training for a saleable skill with teaching the 3 R's.

Prior to enlistment in the welding course the trainees were tested and found to be below the 6th grade level in reading, writing, and arithmetic. After the 45 weeks of training (the welding courses ordinarily operate on a 26-week schedule, but due to the schooling needed for basic literacy the course was extended 19 more weeks), the students progressed to such an extent that plans are now being made to give some of them the high school equivalency test.

The course in welding was financed under provisions of

ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

THE COMMON COLD

By C. Robert Gruver, Editor, All About Babies

Pediatricians point out that in babies, there is greater likelihood that the common cold will spread to the lungs or ears and cause such complications as bronchitis, pneumonia, or inflammation of the middle ear.

They urge mothers to take extra precautions to prevent their babies from coming down with a cold and extra measures to minimize the effects of a cold after it develops.

Babies should be kept away from persons who have colds and from crowded places such as stores, buses and movie theatres. If a mother who has a cold must take care of her baby, she can give the baby some protection by wearing a gauze mask over her mouth and nose, and by washing her hands with soap and water before handling the baby or preparing its food.

Anything which tends to lower a baby's body resistance such as not eating enough of the right kinds of foods, and lack of rest, will often increase a baby's susceptibility to colds. Diseased tonsils and other defects in the nose and throat may also be contributing factors.

Sniffles, sneezing, coughing, tickling or soreness in the throat are some of the symptoms of a cold. When a baby shows these signs, it should be put to bed, kept warm and quiet and separated from other people, especially other children.

If the cold does not clear up quickly, a physician should be consulted. For some of the signs of a cold may also be the symptoms of the early stage of many communicable diseases of babyhood. If the symptoms are followed by chilliness or convulsions, fever and aching, it may be more than a cold, perhaps some babyhood infection.

fection such as measles, pediatricians say.

Parents should not allow a baby who has even a mild cold to mingle with other children. This one precaution alone, a responsibility of all parents, would do much to minimize the effects of a cold and check the spread of colds and other infectious diseases among babies.

HELP?

From Sebaker, Minn. Review: A feature of Social Security and pending Medicare that is not explained to the elderly is that the aged person who is required to employ help in the home must pay these Social Security taxes to the person employed and this is true even if the aged person has no income whatsoever. Under Social Security many thousands of persons past 70 years of age and with little or no income are being taxed by the federal government simply because they are physically incapable of doing the housework and must have help.

All drivers aren't expected to agree with every traffic law, but all drivers are expected to obey these laws. And this shouldn't be too difficult, since the basic purpose of these laws is to prevent accidents and save lives.
